DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's amendments and arguments, filed 10/26/2011, with respect to claims 15, 16, 19-21, 24-27, 32-35, 37-41, 43 and 46 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 15, 16, 19-21, 24-27, 32-35, 37-41, 43 and 46 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

In regards to independent claims 15, 35 and 41, as well as the claims that depend therefrom, the prior art of record does not disclose or fairly suggest a motivation to combine a device for harvesting a bone core, inter alia, wherein the device comprises a collet assembly having a sleeve, a collar and a harvester. The sleeve, collar and harvester all have throughbores that extend completely through the component. The harvester assembly is disposed within the sleeve and encompasses a portion of the collar assembly, thus aligning the throughbores the harvester, the collar and the sleeve. The connection between the harvester and the collet assembly is a quick release mechanism that is aided by a compression spring and a locking pin. This device operates with a motor that drives the harvester to core a bone.

In regards to independent claim 27, as well as the claims that depend therefrom, the prior art of record does not disclose or fairly suggest a motivation to combine a method for harvesting a bone core, inter alia, wherein the method utilizes a device having a harvesting member, a collet assembly being quick release for connection with the harvester and the harvester is driven into bone by an external force, with the force being a drill motor or striking force. The method further comprises driving the harvester into a bone, trapping a portion of the bone within the harvester and removing the portion of bone from the device through a throughbore that extends through the harvester and the collet assembly when the harvester and collet assembly are interconnected.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
